Dear Sheikh Haron

CHANNEL 7 RESPONSE TO YOUR COMPLAINT

I refer to your facsimile of 9 August 2007.

By way of clarification, any person who witnesses a terrorist act or any other offence is able to refer the matter to the appropriate investigative authority such as the Australian Federal Police (AFP), or the State or Territory police.

If you were to request us to do so, we would refer your correspondence to the AFP for their consideration. We note that in your last facsimile, you indicated that you do not make such a request.

It is not a function of this Office to provide members of the public with advice as to what would or would not be an offence in particular circumstances. Accordingly we are not in a position to answer your specific questions.

Yours faithfully

Glenn Theakston
