Dear Sheikh Haron

I am writing in response to your letter of 7 August 2007. In this letter you asked if I had received a letter from you dated 27 July 2007 which contained a report about terrorist activity in Australia. Unfortunately, I do not appear to have received your first letter or the report.

Could you please resend your report about terrorist activity in Australia to the National Security Hotline, Attorney-General's Department, National Circuit, BARTON, ACT, 2600.

Alternatively, the National Security Hotline can be accessed through a toll free number on 1800 123 400, via email at hotline@nationalsecurity.gov.au, or by visiting www.nationalsecurity.gov.au.

All information received by the National Security Hotline is forwarded to the relevant authorities, including the Australian Federal Police, ASIO and state and territory police, for analysis and further investigation. This information can play a vital role in supporting Australia's counter-terrorism preparedness.

Thank you for your willingness to help safeguard Australia.

Yours sincerely

Philip Ruddock
