

20 December 2007

Senator Chris Evans

The Minister for Immigration and Citizenship

Parliament House, Canberra ACT 2600

Dear Sir,

Offensive Citizenship Ceremony for Muslims

I respectfully write to you to report about a planned offensive citizenship ceremony for Muslims in Sydney.

Few days before the election, The Department of Immigration and Citizenship invites the citizenship applicants to attend a citizenship ceremony to make a pledge of commitment as the final step in becoming an Australian citizen and to receive their citizenship certificate in the ceremony as usual.

The applicants have been waiting for a long time to attend this ceremony. The excited applicants will be more excited when they receive a letter which emphasises that:

After you have made a pledge of commitment, you will be given your evidence of Australian citizenship.

In fact that part of the ceremony which the applicants receive the citizenship ceremony for most of people is the sweetest part of the ceremony. That moment that a new Australian citizen receives the certificate in front of relatives and friends and in special environment of the ceremony is memorable moment that the receiver of the citizenship certificate feels proud and responsible for her/his new country. That sweet moment of receiving the certificate is the honey second of the ceremony. This is what other people usually say, this is what the Australian authorities believe. This is what the applicants have already said about their feelings.

It is close to the election, very close, just few days before election, liberal party knows that will defeat in the election, liberal party that has had a long and popular history and experience of giving hard time to the immigrant, specially if they are not westerns and more specially if they are Asians or Middle Eastern and the most specially if they are Muslims! Oh Mate Don't even talk about it, Muslims? Oh NO! These Muslims deserve a punishment in our last days of our government. 95% of them vote for Labor. They have no use and advantage for us. And now they want to make a happy ceremony few days after the election. They will be so double happy, one happiness for our defeat and Labor's victory and the other happiness for receiving the citizenship certificate. NO WAY! We are not going to give them the certificate, we are not going to give the honey moment of the ceremony, we are not going to let them feel proud of having the certificate in their hand in front of the public. NO WAY .

We will make them happy first by promising, first we promise them that they will receive a citizenship certificate in the ceremony, so while everyone attends the ceremony we announce that: sorry we are not able to print citizenship certificates because the federal Government is changed and the signature of new Minister is needed. But if we win in the election, we might give them the certificate, but we don't think so, we know that we can't win.

So if we give the invitation few days before the federal election, for example if we can send it on 20th November and they receive it 21 or 22, then if we make the ceremony on 10 December is good. 24 hours after election is so early and doesn't seem normal, 24 days after election also is too late and the new Minister is already ready to sign the citizenship certificate, so it should be sometime like 10th December. By the way the unsuccessful ceremony will be after election and during the time that Kevin is prime minister, so nobody can complaint from us, that ceremony will be happened under the Kevin's governing period not ours.

But which suburb is appropriate for our revenge? Of course we must choose a suburb that most of the applicants are Muslims. Look and see which Muslim suburbs are waiting for the ceremony the most? Check Lakemba, Liverpool and....

Yes we've found it, Liverpool is the best. Majority of applicants are Muslims and they have been waited for a long time. Mostly are from Iraq and they will be very happy when Kevin will withdraw the Australian troops out of Iraq.

Dear Senator Chris Evans,

They invited Muslims to the ceremony on 10 December 2007 just few days before the federal election and they selected the date 10th December 2007 for the ceremony. They did choose Liverpool and the majority were Muslims who attended 1 Hoxton Park Road at 6 PM.

They wrote in the invitation: YOU WILL BE GIVEN YOUR EVIDENCE OF AUSTRALIAN CITIZENSHIP.

When the excited Muslim applicants with their relatives and friends attended the ceremony, they gave them a paper which has already been prepared stating:

YOU CANNOT BE PRESENTED WITH EVIDENCE OF YOUR AUSTRALIAN CITIZENSHIP TODAY!

Dear Senator, Some emotional and excited Muslims in fact have cried. They took the honey. They took the enjoyment of ceremony from Muslims. They destroyed Muslim's citizenship ceremony. They broke their heart. They put them down. They broke their pride. They psychologically damaged and offended Muslims. Sometimes psychological torture is worse than physical torture. Psychological rape is more painful than physical rape. Breaking the hearts is more effective on the soul of human being than breaking the hands and the legs.

Dear Chris, for your Christmas' sake, please speak out and say something. Do not remain silent please. Please do something.

Dear Sir,

I had heard that politics is dirty but I didn't know it could be this much.

The political rape hurts the health of the body of our society more than physical rape. Please take this case serious. Sometimes psychological offenders damage the society more and must be charged more than other offenders. Please take it serious.

I respectfully ask you to please investigate whether or not the liberal party of Australia has been behind this dirty conspiracy? Please let us know who has been behind this? Thank you.

May God help you to clean the 11 year old mess of the Department of Immigration. Amen.

Kind regards

Sheikh Haron
